CHASSIFICATION Approved For Release RDP82-00457R0014005

NFIDENTIAL

lorent joluntsor Aray

12

PLACE 25X1CCQUIRED

SUBJECT

DATE OF INFO

NO. OF ENCLS.

MOLOF DAGES

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

Korean Volunteer Army Unit at Busnichens

- On 3 Recember 1947, there was a unit of approximately 3,000 troops of the Kersen Volunteer Army at Suspichang (126-13, 43-59).
- According to the troops, this unit was activated in North Mores in June 1947 and, after approximately three months of training (? in North Tores?), seved to Mapichang via Yenchi (129-31, 42-55), arriving at Emapichang in early October 1947.
- The commanding officer of the unit is a Korean named PAH Pong-son (才) 3. who used to be known by the Japanese name of INOME Hosen (井上奉先).
- There are two Soviet staff officers attached to the unit; one is a colonel 4. and the other a lieutenant colonei.

25X1X

- The must is well armed with Japanese Model-38 rifles. 5.
- Each squad (?plateon?) carries four Soviet automatic rifles and two Soviet light machine game.
- All the troops of the anti-wear yellow, cotton-padded uniforms.

Source for paragraphs 3-9: Nember of Changehan Police Eurean

Boreen Volunteer Army Proops in Methokou

- In late October 1947, there was a unit of 20,000 (?) troops of the Kersea 8. Volunteer Army in Neihokon (125-41, 42-32). Except for two regiments, this troops are armed with Japanese Model-99 rifles. Amounttion is ample. Two regiments of the troops have Soviet rifles.
- The unit is partly mechanized and all the troops wear the same type of uniform. 9

CONTINUENTAL CLASSIFICATION DISTRIBUTION X NSRB X HAVY AIR ARMY

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Amprowed For Release 200

Document No.